

AI KIT VISUALIZATION | ANYTIME UPGRADE

Upgrading a Customer anytime during the Term

An end-to-end walkthrough — a full upgrade, a partial upgrade, guardrails, and the 14-day return, with the API used at each step.

What this walkthrough covers

01

The upgrade entry point

Where upgrades surface on the customer's products, and when the action is available.

API Offer Switch Paths

02

A full upgrade

Move a whole subscription to a higher tier and pay only the prorated price difference.

API Preview Switch · Create Order

03

A partial upgrade

Switch only some licences; the rest stay on the source subscription.

API Preview Switch · Create Order

04

SECTION 01

The upgrade entry point

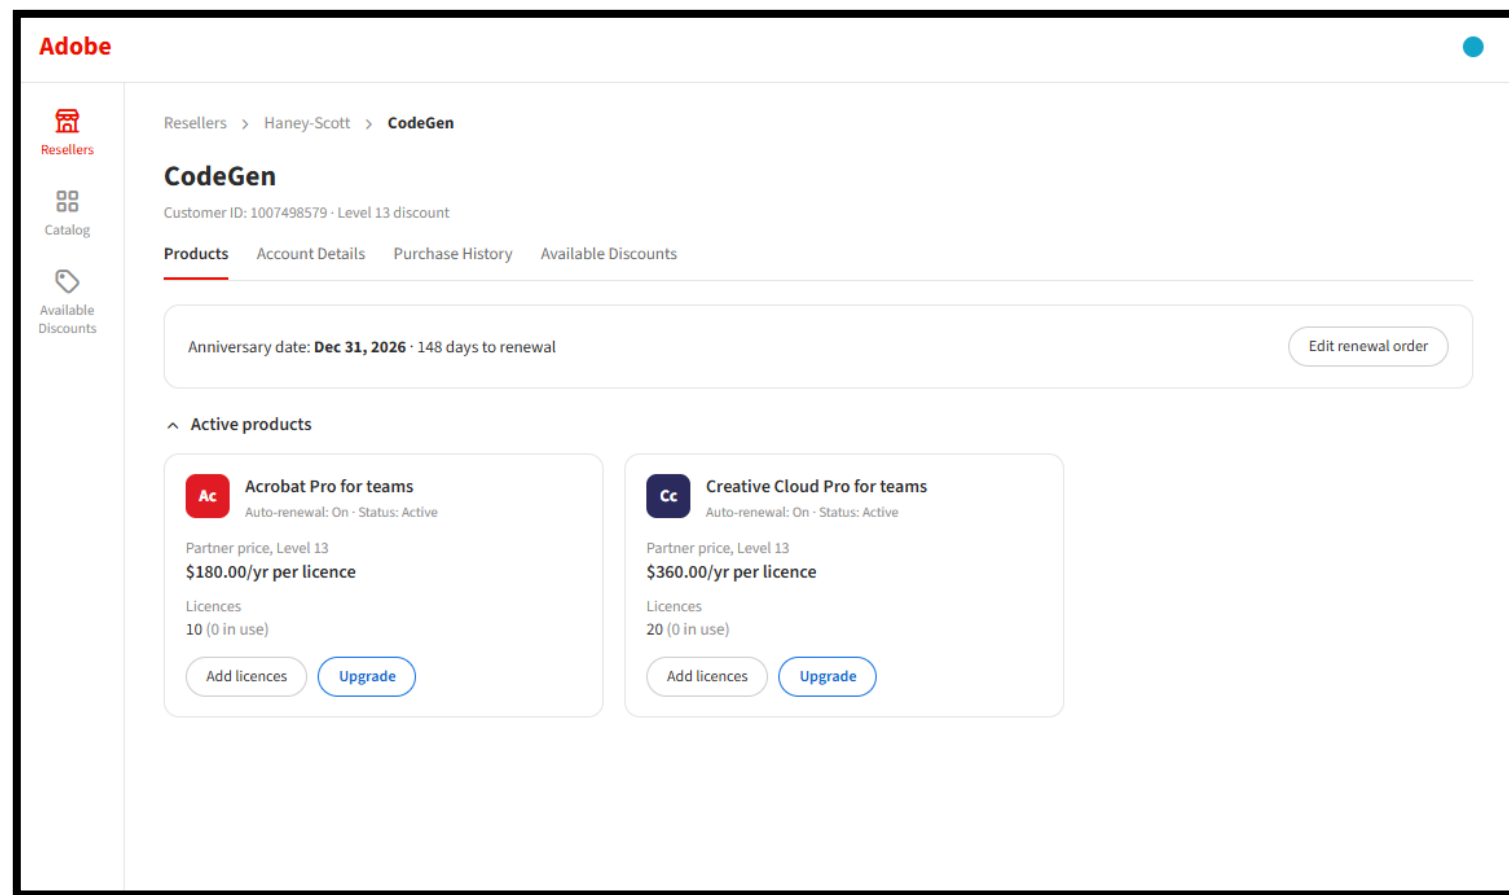

An Upgrade action on the product card, driven by the subscription's available upgrade paths.

THE UPGRADE ENTRY POINT

Upgrade is available on eligible products

CodeGen holds 10 Acrobat Pro for teams and 20 Creative Cloud Pro for teams, anniversary Dec 31, 2026.

Both cards show an Upgrade action because each subscription has available upgrade paths.

API Offer Switch Paths

SECTION 02

A full upgrade — Acrobat Pro to Acrobat Studio for enterprise

Switch the whole subscription; pay the prorated difference, not the new product's full price.

FULL UPGRADE

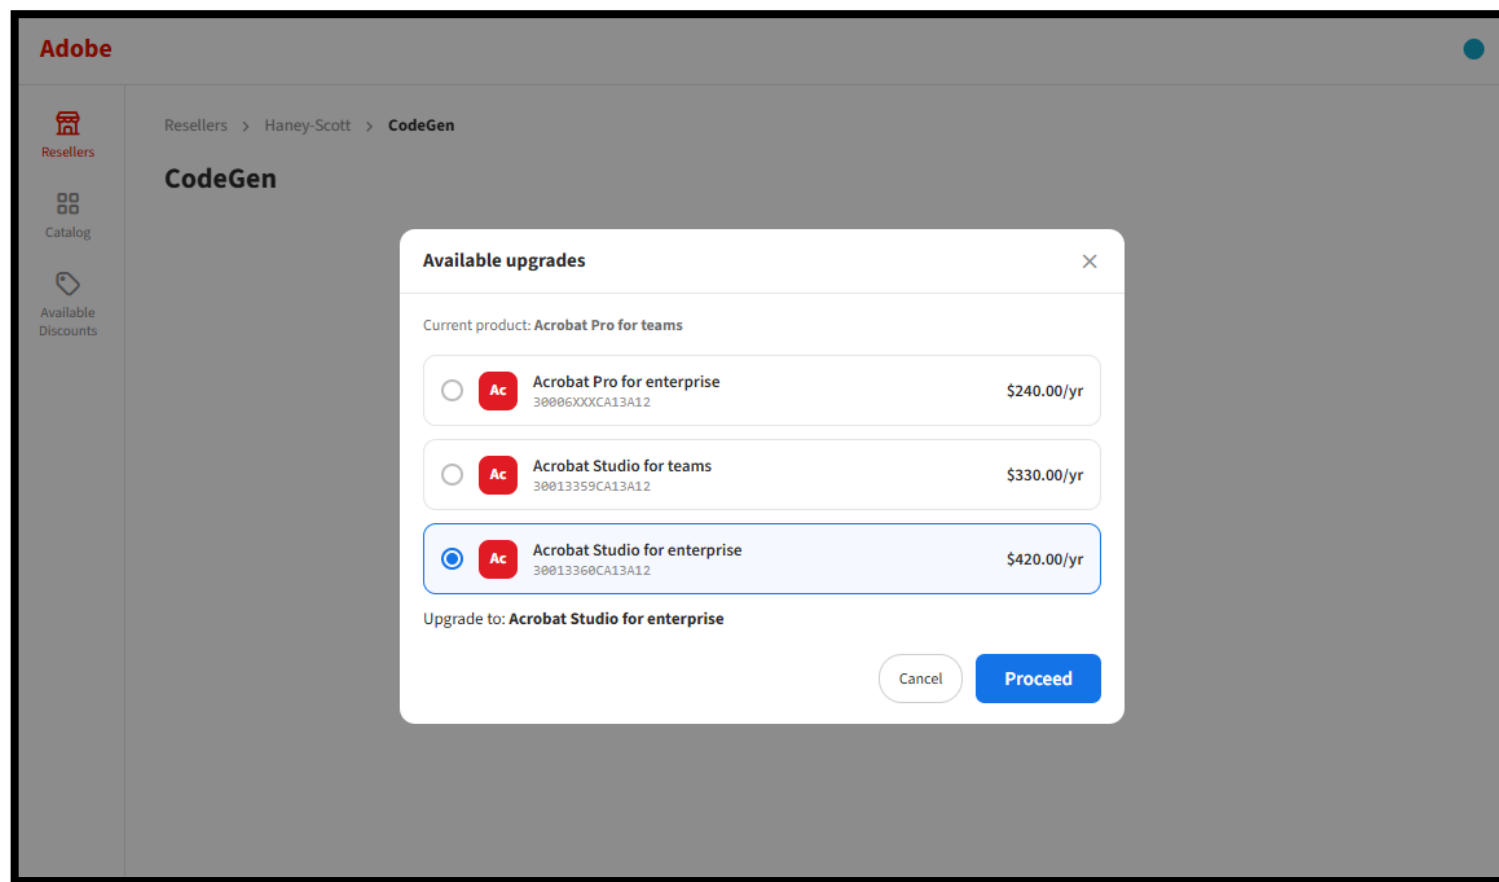

1

Choose an upgrade target

Each target is a higher tier priced above the source — Pro for enterprise, Studio for teams, Studio for enterprise.

Studio for enterprise is a full-only target, so the whole subscription moves.

2

Review the switch — pay only the prorated difference

The preview fires on load. New: 10 × Studio for enterprise, prorated 148 days, +$1,703.01. Credit: the cancelled Acrobat Pro, −$729.86.

Net due is the difference — $973.15, not the $1,703.01 full price.

The screenshot shows the Adobe Resellers interface for a 'Review upgrade' page. The breadcrumb trail is 'Resellers > Haney-Scott > CodeGen > Review upgrade'. The left sidebar contains 'Resellers', 'Catalog', and 'Available Discounts'. The main content area is titled 'Review upgrade details' and contains four status messages: 1. 'This purchase is for CodeGen on behalf of Haney-Scott.' 2. 'Upgraded licences will be immediately available and automatically assigned.' 3. 'Adobe is not responsible for billing these licences to the customer or collecting payments.' 4. 'The amount is the partner price difference between Acrobat Pro for teams and Acrobat Studio for enterprise, prorated to the next anniversary date.' Below these is a visual representation of the upgrade: 'Acrobat Pro for teams' (with an 'Ac' icon) followed by an arrow and 'Acrobat Studio for enterprise' (also with an 'Ac' icon). On the right, the 'Order summary' shows '10 Licences (Level 13 discount)' and 'Reflecting partner pricing for customer.' Below this is a card for 'Acrobat Studio for enterprise' with Offer ID: 30013360CA13A12. It shows a quantity of 10 licences with a minus, plus, and reset button, and a note '— per licence · 148 days proration'. A link 'Apply discount code' is present. Below the summary is an 'Update price' button. A red error box states: 'Preview failed. switch preview returned SWITCH_PRICING_UNAVAILABLE for this line. Failed to load pricing. Click 'Update price' to retry.' At the bottom, the 'Estimated Total' section includes a disclaimer and a disabled 'Place order' button.

The screenshot displays the Adobe Resellers interface for a 'Review upgrade' transaction. The breadcrumb trail indicates the path: Resellers > Haney-Scott > CodeGen > Review upgrade. The left sidebar contains navigation links for Resellers, Catalog, and Available Discounts. The main content area is titled 'Review upgrade details' and includes three status messages: the purchase is for CodeGen on behalf of Haney-Scott; upgraded licences will be immediately available; and Adobe is not responsible for billing. A visual comparison shows the upgrade from 'Creative Cloud Pro for teams' to 'Creative Cloud Pro Plus for teams'. Below this, two additional messages state that Adobe is not responsible for billing and that the amount is the partner price difference between the two products, prorated to the next anniversary date. On the right, the 'Order summary' section shows 4 licences (Level 13 discount) at $194.63 per licence for 148 days proration. A 'SWITCH CALCULATION' table details the costs: a new charge of $778.52 for 4 licences of Creative Cloud Pro Plus and a credit of $583.89 for 4 cancelled licences of Creative Cloud Pro, resulting in a net due of $194.63. The 'Estimated Total' is also $194.63, with a note that local taxes apply. A 'Place order' button is at the bottom right.

SECTION 04

After the order — the 14-day return

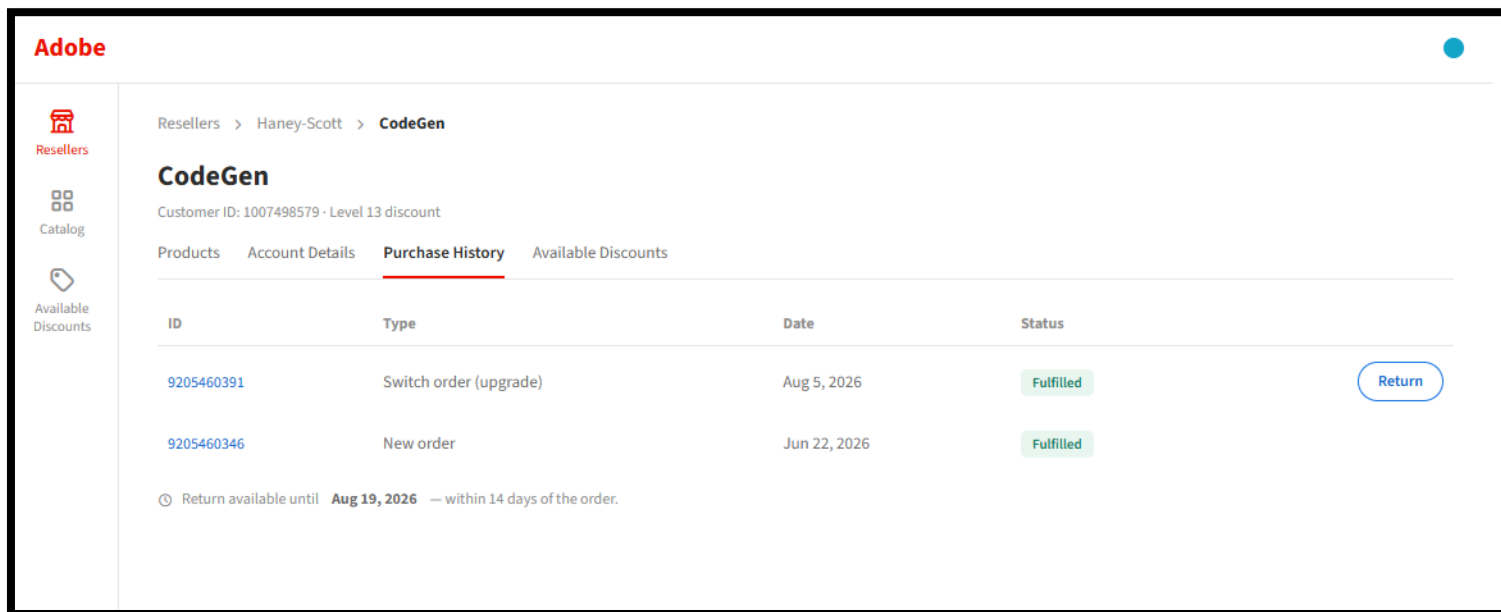

The upgrade appears in Purchase History with a return available within 14 days of the order.

AFTER THE ORDER

1

The upgrade in Purchase History

The switch order is listed as fulfilled, with a Return action available until Aug 19, 2026 — within 14 days of the order.

The screenshot displays the Adobe CodeGen interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation links: Resellers, Catalog, and Available Discounts. The main content area shows the breadcrumb 'Resellers > Haney-Scott > CodeGen' and the title 'CodeGen'. Below this, it states 'Customer ID: 1007498579 · Level 13 discount'. There are four tabs: Products, Account Details, Purchase History (which is active), and Available Discounts. A table lists the purchase history with columns for ID, Type, Date, and Status. Two orders are shown: a 'Switch order (upgrade)' with ID 9205460391 dated Aug 5, 2026, and a 'New order' with ID 9205460346 dated Jun 22, 2026. Both are marked as 'Fulfilled'. A 'Return' button is present next to the first order. At the bottom, a note indicates 'Return available until Aug 19, 2026 — within 14 days of the order.'

ID	Type	Date	Status
9205460391	Switch order (upgrade)	Aug 5, 2026	Fulfilled
